P.M.'s POSITIVE ATTITUDE TO S.A. JEWRY

By a Staff Reporter

MR. SAUL E. JOFTES, Director-General of the Office of International Affairs of Bnai Brith, who last week met with the Hon. Dr. Hendrik Verwoerd, Prime Minister of South Africa, revealed in an interview that the attitude of the Prime Minister towards the South African Jewish community was "very favourable and very positive."

Mr. Joftes, who is on a three-week visit to the Republic said that the Prime Minister showed a remarkable interest in the work of the Bnai Brith and was pleased to hear of the forthcoming development programme of the organisation.

SAUL JOFTES

Accompanied by Mr. Adolph James, President of Bnai Brith of Southern Africa, Mr. Gerald Sichel, President of the Salisbury Lodge, and Mr. Gus Saron, General Secretary of the S.A. Jewish Board of Deputies, Mr. Joftes spent some thirty-five minutes in cordial conversation with Dr. Verwoerd.
